But the youngsters found their greatest delight in their boxes of prize confectionery, the discovery of the prizes in each bringing about much merriment. Games were enjoyed during the afternoon. If immigration is regulated according to the new bill under preparation by the house immigration committee, this country will for the first time have a fair and business-like regulation of this important problem.

Under such a law every foreigner will be welcomed as a visitor. Foreigners who under our present laws are not eligible to citizenship—as the Japanese, for instance—must have passports limited as to time, issued in their own country and used by consular agents of the United States. Japanese visitors now come on Japanese passports, but without limit. Thousands of them remain here permanently, thus getting around the "gentlemen's agreement" between the two countries.
These "visitors" send back to Japan for "picture brides." They marry and have children, and these children are born into United States citizenship.
Passports limited as to time would break up this practice; they would also keep from permanent residence in this country other nationals that were undesirable because of having no intention to become patriotic American citizens.

All foreigners who are eligible to citizenship under present laws would be received without passports, but would be required to state in writing their belief that it is their intention to live here and become citizens. They must also agree to register once a year for two years, or be deported. They must take out first papers at the end of two years or again be subject to deportation. In five years more—at the end of seven years—they would be entitled to final papers. Time would be allowed off this seven-year period for knowledge of the American plan of government and for proficiency in the English language. Final papers must be taken out by the end of eight years in this country, penalty for failure being deportation.

This bill has been called drastic, but it is drastic only in comparison with the lax immigration laws which this country has always had. Under these laws we have given little or no attention to newcomers; we have had no check on people coming here, but have taken it for granted after the lapse of a little time that all were citizens.

Thus we have had unnaturalized aliens holding important official positions. They have been state officers, mayors of cities, and thousands of them have been policemen—all of them voting regularly and without question.
Our very laxness has caused many of them—used to foreign strictness—to believe that we in America have only a make-believe nation, whose laws are not worth respecting. Many thousands have come over, have enjoyed all the privileges of citizenship and have never been ready or willing to fulfill any of the responsibilities of citizenship.

Thus it was that the world war found in our country so many thousands with no American sympathies, without any firm grasp on American ideals, and still clinging to the sovereigns who ruled them in the old countries. Thus it was that we found ourselves with so large a pro-German element—that had lived here for years, continuing to live and think and act as Germans, with no thought of America except that it was inferior to Germany. We found in our midst other large elements of foreign origin that were ripe for acceptance of bolshevik ideas.

We need a law now that will insure it that there will never be a recurrence of this situation. Desirable foreigners will always be welcomed. They should be received into citizenship only if they are ready, willing and capable of becoming loyal Americans, always for America first.

Attended Funeral—Mr. and Mrs.
Frank Fisher returned Saturday from Baxter, Ia., after attending the funeral companied them here and visited over Sunday.

her son, C. E. Heckman.

list for the grade to which your child siders have it that Green has selected himself for that position, and that he's evening practicing.

Many Other Features.

Of course the hall game is only one feature of the big event. There will be a program of athletic events, swimming features, cats, dancing and everything. It's going to be the greatest day the Elks have ever had.

ing of the House committee for the big picnic dinner at a meeting Friday evening. The members of this ladies' committee have made every effort to reach the family of every member of the lodge, but may have failed, and to that end it is asked that anyone who has not been interrogated about attending the event (which is to be exclusively for members of the lodge and their families), communicate with Mrs.

Joseph McCleary, chairman of the committee. Mrs. McCleary's telephone is No. 658.

PREVENTED FACTORY
MOVING TO THIS CITYW. L. Margraff Proposed Moving Plant From Pretzel City.

Freeport, Aug. 26.—Reviving a manufacturing concern established here many years ago, the Peerless Sash and Door Company of Freeport has begun operating the mill just north of the city, alongside the Illinois Central track, formerly run by Dirksen & Towles and afterward by Dr. Dirksen alone, and already orders are coming in fast, not only from builders in this city but from other counties of northwestern Illinois.

The newly-formed company is offered as follows:
President—William L. Margraff.
Vice President—Dr. J. S. Clark.
Secretary and treasurer—Levi L.
Hime.

The board of directors includes these officers and Messrs. H. A. Hillmer and Jacob Weiss. Additional stockholders are W. T. Raleigh, F. M. Gund and Charles H. Green.

How Factory Was Secured.

This industry was secured for Freeport in a rather unique way. Mr. Mar-graff, the president and manager of the company, is a Dixon man and for a number of years traveled for a large sash and door concern in Chicago and "made" Freeport as part of his territory. Finding the equipment of the Dirksen mill for sale he bought it, intending to move it to Dixon and open a mill there. While he was contin-uating this move a number of public-spirited Freeporters, whose names appear in the lists of directors and officers, decided they would not let the industry get away from this city if it were possible to keep it. Accordingly negotiations were begun with Mr. Mar-graff, with the result that the Peerless Sash and Door Company was organized and plans made to put new life into the plant.

While Mr. Margraff was making his preliminary plans for the reopening of the shop he was also after business for his new enterprise, and when the doors were opened a week ago the company had more than $15,000 worth of orders to begin work on. Since that time business has continued to come from various northern Illinois cities, so that the outlook is very satisfactory both to Mr. Margraff and the men backing him. Mr. Margraff having traveled all over the territory adjacent to Freeport is in a position to pick up business with greater facility than would one not so familiar with the field as he. He has a thorough knowledge of the business, is a fine man personally and his company will without doubt, meet with good success. All kinds of mill work will be manufactured, both for home and outside trade. The company did not purchase the building but acquired all of the machinery formerly used in it.

Clyde Lemox Home—Clyde Lemox, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lemox, who recently returned to the United States from his overseas service, reached home yesterday, having been given his honorable discharge from the service.

WOLFE TO MEET
WEST BROOKLYN
WRESTLER SOON

Dan Wolfe, the Dixon wrestler, who in two matches with the star of the Heth Carnival here last week demonstrated that his mat work in the navy made him better than ever before, anticipates many wrestling bouts during the coming winter, and it is probably a number of big matches will be staged in Dixon. Boxing and wrestling in all of the army camps have added greatly to the popularity of those sports and there is no doubt that shows will prove more financially successful this winter than ever before. Dan's first match of the season, aside from his exhibitions with the carnival man, will be at West Brooklyn Monday night (Labor Day) when he will meet Frank Weiser, West Brooklyn wrestler who acquired considerable skill in the army training. The West Brooklyn young man, known as his home neighborhood as "The French Wildcat," is a great favorite in that vicinity, and the opera house at West Brooklyn will be well filled with fans for the coming show. A number of Dixon followers of the game will accompany the Dixon man.

ARMY PISTOL GONE
HE OFFERS REWARD

Major Bradford Brinton is mourning the loss of a 45 automatic Colt army pistol which he believes was taken from his residence on the north side, and he has offered a liberal reward for its return, with the assurance that no questions will be asked. The pistol is one which Mr. Brinton carried with him throughout the war, and because of this it has a great value because of its associations. There is evidence that it was taken from the holster within the past four or five days.

TAKE A PEEP AT THE NEWEST
FALL STYLES

Whatever else a Suit does, it must remain straight and simple as witnesseth the group of Suits above, and just note the three distinct types represented here.

First the strictly tailored Suits with sleeves and shoulders very snug. Wide revers joining a mannish collar and skirts just wide enough to be comfortable. Others more on the blouse effect, merely suggestive, instead of revealed.
They come in blue button and silk embroidery trimmed.
Mixed tweeds and silvertone.

Coats insist on the straight line silhouette. Even the Gunoble as it is called by the Woolltex designers, remain perfectly flat in the back.
Some slightly flare and others remain straight line.

Many of the Coats scorn all luxuries except the richness of their own fabrics an odd stitchery here and there, a novel arm hole or a bit of fur.

Plaid back silvertone and velours, made in simple models for utility wear are very sightly and priced reasonable.

Short Coats of silk plush are also shown with belts to be worn in or out as you like. Also leather Coats for the out-of-door sports and motor wear—either short or three-quarter length.

We recommend Woolltex, because the Woolltex label promises superior fabrics, so carefully tailored that the correct lines remain throughout the season.

DIXON BOYS AT CAMP PINOKA

Bremer's nine won the honors and watermelon feed which was to be served to the winning team in the first week's series of base ball. Bremer did the twirling for his aggregation and did such excellent work that he is now a much talked of candidate for the Chicago Cubs in 1920.

A big campfire and marshmallow roast was held Friday evening. The whole camp with many visitors surrounded the big blaze and preceding the roast enjoyed singing and ghost stories. The Dixon boys enjoyed Brandenburg's new hit, "He Threw Them Out the Window." Prescott Brinton had the boys badly frightened with his long exciting dream.

Sadler Archer, one of the smallest boys in camp, is attracting much attention by his thrilling dives and wonderful swimming. He sure swims like a fish.

Pollock, one of the popular young men, nearly got himself into serious trouble. Thinking perhaps it would be pretty soft pickings he wended his way from one tent to another and supplied himself with all the pillows in camp. What a bed he would have had that night. But tent inspectors spoiled it for him because all pillows were missing and they made inquiry. It is now safe to say Pollock will be satisfied with his tick filled with pine needles.

WALTON TO WELCOME SOLDIERS THURSDAY

Marion township plans to honor its returned soldiers and sailors with a Welcome-Home banquet at Walton hall Thursday evening, August 28. Among the after-dinner speakers will be Sergeant J. C. Lamb, who served two and a half years with the U. S. Marines. His eloquent story of "Reminiscences of the Front" is replete with detail and interest. The Lamb family has the unique distinction of having had four "devil dogs" in the service, all of them wounded in action and one of them the youngest among the Marines. Sergeant Lamb was awarded the Croix de Guerre by the French government for exceptional bravery. Another feature of the program will be furnished by Mr. T. H. Bradley, a K. of C. secretary and talented ventriloquist. Music is under the direction of Mr. C. C. Ackert.

The program will be given as follows: Violin Selection, Catherine Lalley. Trilogy, The Call, the Pledge, the Fulfillment.

AMERICAN LEGION AND ELKS TO AID SALVATION ARMY IN COMING DRIVE

Assistance of Great Organizations Pledged By Officers.

Two great organizations, the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks and the American Legion, the latter composed of officers and soldiers of the world war, have offered to give all possible aid to the Salvation Army during the Home Service Fund campaign, to be conducted in Illinois, Sept. 22 to 29. In this campaign the army will ask Illinois to provide a fund of $2,250,000 with which to carry on the charitable and relief work of the army.

In past campaigns for funds the Salvation Army always has found the B. P. O. E. lined up solidly behind it and in some of the state drives which have been made for home service funds, the Elks played prominent parts.

All that was necessary to enlist the American Legion was to let the officers know that the campaign was being prepared. The soldiers remembered the work of the Salvation Army in France, and when Staff Captain C. A. Ryan, director of the campaign in Illinois, told the officers of the Legion at a meeting in Chicago that a campaign was about ready to be started, they adopted resolutions pledging the support of all the members of the Legion.

Webster H. Rapp, of Chicago, state president of the Elks, sent a letter to the Salvation Army campaign headquarters, stating that he would accept a post on the State Executive Committee, and enclosed a draft of a letter written to every Elk lodge in Illinois, urging that the campaign be supported. Past Grand Exalted Ruler Bruce Campbell, of East St. Louis, also sent a letter to all Elk lodges in Illinois, urging the co-operation of all Elks in the drive.

Following is the resolution adopted by the officers of the American Legion: "Resolved: That we heartily endorse the campaign to be conducted in Illinois by the Salvation Army for $2,250,000 for charitable work, and instruct each officer to place the matter before his local post with a view of securing their co-operation and to await further instructions from the army regarding the manner in which they may serve."

FEDERAL CONTROL OF STOCK CARS AND ICE PLANTS RECOMMENDED

Trade Commission Says Packers Control is Extended to Them.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, Aug. 26.—Declaring that the step is necessary to control the business of the five largest packing companies, the federal trade commission in a special report to President Wilson recommends that operation of refrigerator cars and of cars used for transportation of meat animals be declared a government monopoly. It recommends further that the property concerned, including icing stations and other facilities as well as the cars be acquired by the government and railroads there after be licensed to own and operate them. The big packers, the report says, now own 90 per cent of all the refrigerator equipment in the country suitable for the transport of fresh meat.

"The present country wide system of distribution by the five big packers has grown up from their control of refrigerator car lines in conjunction with various pools," the report says in part.

Get Rid of Advantages

"In turn, the volume of traffic of the five packers has enabled them to secure from the railroads advantages over competing shippers. Formerly in the shape of direct rebates, these advantages are now usually in expedited service to the big packer cars; in favorable mixing rules which include all their diversified products and even in services not related to the packing industry; by allowances paid to some of the 112 packers by carriers for a part of the transportation service; by favorable arrangements and lease of stock yards by the railroads to some of the big packers; and by the sale to the railroads of bumping posts manufactured by a subsidiary of one of the big five.

"The small independent packers cars are misused and diverted, frequently being out of his service for extended periods, in several instances as long as six months. In 1917, the cars of the 'big five' and their subsidiary companies maintained an average of 80.8 miles per car per day, while the average for cars of their competitors, the independent packing companies, was only 54.5 miles.

The commission's investigation of the private car ownership has developed the fact that while packers claim losses, the report says, "a proper revision of their car accounts" shows the car operation has netted some profit. This amounted to 6.8 per cent in 1912, 3.4 per cent in 1914, and 4.3 per cent in 1917.

"The prompt and efficient handling of live traffic in meats and other perishable foods is of great public concern," the report says in making the recommendations, "and it is also important that all shippers should have equal and adequate service. The recommendations are made to correct present inequalities of service and rates as well as to prevent the dangers of monopolistic advantages."

KEEP SMILING.

Down in LaMoille, Bureau county, is one man who doesn't believe in signs. He is employed at the McTee garage, and the Dixon police, judging from the tone of his voice as he reported his experience to them over the telephone, are of the opinion he is the maddest man in northern Illinois. During the wee small hours of Sunday night he was awakened from a fine sleep by the telephone in the garage. It was a call for help from a stranded autoist several miles in the country. The traveler had had a bad blowout, one casing being useless, and would the garage man please bring a 33x4 cord tire and casing with him. Yes, the garage man would. He did. Arriving at the scene of the trouble he labored diligently in doing most of the work in placing that new casing on the stranded machine.

The work done, would the garage man please lead the way into town where the tourists wished to get some gasoline and oil and where they would pay for the new tire and other supplies which they would purchase. Once again the garage man "would." He started for LaMoille, his grateful patrons following. For several miles they rolled along through the still night, the only sounds being the purring of the two motors and the chirping of the crickets.

Suddenly the garage man heard the music of but one motor. He looked around and saw a red light turning a corner some distance back. And there came to him a realization that few feet in front of that red light were a new cord casing and a new inner tube for which he could not count the cash. He turned around and gave chase. The pursuit continued for some time but the nearest the mechanic got to his quarry was just near enough for him to read the sign on the rear of the tourists' speeding car. In large letters that sign enjoined all behind to "Keep Smiling."

Rail Strike Spreads in Western States

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Los Angeles, Calif., Aug. 26.—Rail transportation throughout southern California as far as Fresno on the north and as far as Yuma, Arizona, was paralyzed today.

A strike which began Thursday night when switchmen and brakemen quit their posts in sympathy with a strike of trainmen of the Pacific Electric company, operating an interurban system, and which rapidly extended to include other trainmen, yardmen and shopmen spread last night northward to Bakersfield, Calif., and eastward to Yuma. Switchmen and trainmen who met here last night took no official action, it is said, on orders from Warren S. Stone, international grand master of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, and W. G. Lee, of the railway trainmen to "perform their usual duties and carry out their contracts."

COAL OPERATORS HAVE NOT FIXED PRICE, ONE SAYS

Prices Decline Under Competition—Lower Than Year Ago.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, Aug. 26.—Denying that a combination among bituminous coal operators to fix prices exists, J. D. A. Morrow, vice president of the National Coal association, told a senate coal investigating committee today that such a combination would be impossible if attempted. Prices at the mines, he said, have declined under prevailing competition and are lower than a year ago.

"There are about 5,000 separate commercial producers operating approximately 7,000 mines, from which bituminous coal is regularly shipped," Mr. Morrow said. "In addition there are some two thousand operators with about 3,000 mines who begin producing and selling coal whenever the price goes up a little and offers a profit to them. Moreover there are hundreds of thousands of acres of coal lands along railroads on which new mines can be readily and quickly opened by any one so disposed. Such a condition obviously does not lend itself to restrictive combinations among producers."

"Of the 5,000 separate bituminous coal producers in the United States, 2,294, approximately 45 per cent, hold membership in the National Coal association. They produce about 60 per cent of the total output of bituminous coal in the country."

"Charges that the national coal association is a combination to maintain prices are without foundation in fact."

"The national coal association represents these operators and looks after their interests in matters of general concern, such as transportation and traffic questions, standardization of cost accounting, cooperation with governmental agencies, and similar activities. There is nothing secret about its business. Its files and records are open to the committee or any other duly authorized agency of the government at any time."

Mr. Morrow said bituminous coal prices had declined since the armistice, and in general were lower than the prices fixed by the federal administration.

Fred Sullivan has returned from Orfordville, Wis., and will make his home with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Sullivan while attending school.

Mrs. William Hull left Monday for a week's visit in Iowa.

The Tug of Life and Death

Two warring forces—the red blood cells and the white blood cells—are always contending for mastery—in the blood. They are the processes of building up and tearing down. During youth the building-up process of the red blood cells is in the ascendency so that the tendency of the body is all towards growth and development. As middle age approaches the two forces tend to equality while with the coming of old age, the victory of the tearing down process of the white blood cells is manifested by the slow, gradual decay of the vital energies.

REOLO

Makes Rich Red Blood

Oxygen is the life giver—necessary to maintain life. REOLO absorbs the oxygen from the air in the lungs and carries it into the blood—rapidly oxidizing or revitalizing the red blood cells—and increasing the amount of hemoglobin in the blood, sending through the entire body a stream of rich, vitalized, health-giving blood that nourishes every cell, of the nerves, tissues, brain and bones.

By special arrangement with the Dr. A. L. Reusing Laboratories, we have been appointed licensees for the distribution of "REOLO" direct from the laboratories. Each package is certified by Dr. A. L. Reusing, and sold under a positive guarantee of satisfactory results or we will gladly refund your money. Large box of REOLO (containing 100 tablets) only costs $1.00.
